Real Opportunities

Music majors at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside will find a diverse experience that promotes personal discovery, individual creativity, and vibrant collaboration. You will actively explore, learn, and discover your musicality and musicianship in the classroom, studio, and on the stage. Small classes, individualized teaching, numerous ensemble performance opportunities, and thoughtful faculty advising will help you succeed in the teaching profession or the music industry.

At Parkside, you will enjoy a vigorous and student-centered program where excellence is found in the classroom and on the concert stage.

Students learn and perform in the $37 million state-of-the-art facility - the Rita Tallent Picken Regional Center for the Arts and Humanities. The Rita features the acoustically perfect Bedford Concert Hall along with numerous rehearsal rooms, studios, and a dedicated Theory/Piano lab.
